Pastoral Letter May 2025

Hello,

I'm writing this month's letter to you while I'm in Skegness. 14 of the pastorate members have come to Spring Harvest. This year's theme is 'No Greater Story'. There is no greater story than God's story, is there? We really do have good news to share, don't we? What really struck me was what the main Bible teaching session leader (Leon Evans) mentioned; that our own stories might not have been the stories we would have desired (due to illness, grief, abuse, addiction etc) but our stories can be redeemed by the one who redeems, the Lord Jesus Christ.

Our stories, as believers, are part of God's story of love for the world. There was great emphasis on how we need to be more intentional in sharing the good news about Jesus and how he has impacted our stories, as there is an increase in those searching for that something that is missing.

Despite the opinion that youngsters are not interested in Christianity this is actually not true. The sale of Bibles is increasing as people are searching for hope. The church is actually growing globally with around 2.6 billion people already members of God's family.

The sun shone and in fairness Skeggie wasn't as cold as expected at the start, but it did get cold at times. However the worship and teaching definitely wasn't cold - in fact that got hotter. It really is wonderful when you are in the midst of around 2,000 people praising our God.

What I love about Spring Harvest is that denomination disappears. We are there to worship as one church family. It's a glimpse of what heaven will be like - no religious systems to be seen and people having that freedom to worship the one and only God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, as they want - no one cares if you hold your arms in the air or clap as you sing.

The Bible book of the week, which we concentrated on, was the book of Isaiah. The 66 chapters of Isaiah remind us of the 66 books of the Bible. What absolutely blows my mind is that planning for each Spring Harvest event starts well before the week. Planning starts over two years prior but it always feels it was written specifically for the moment we live in. This year could not have been more relevant thinking about the chaos and madness we are watching unfold across the globe.

Like Isaiah, as believers we are commissioned to go and tell people about the judgement of God that is coming (Isaiah 6) but better still, that a Redeemer has always been part of God's plan and that he hears our cries:

"Comfort, comfort my people, says your God." (Isaiah 40:1)

Our Redeemer did come but not quite as people expected; rather than a warrior he was a suffering servant for us all:

“But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was on him, and by his wounds we are healed.” (Isaiah 53:5)

We have been redeemed through Christ as soon as we believe and our own stories can then be wonderfully transformed to glorify God’s holy name.

As the weather warms up, I pray that the flame of the Spirit inside us all is fanned and increased to empower us as we go out to share what God has done for us all and that we can help people to find the One that will satisfy their searching.

God bless you in this coming month.

Ruth

Christian Aid Week

Christian Aid Week this year takes place between Sunday 11 and Saturday 17 May.

Christian Aid is one of the charities that Christ Church supports. We are looking for volunteers to deliver Christian Aid envelopes to local designated streets. If you are able and willing, you can knock to collect them as well, otherwise there will be details on the envelope as to where it can be returned, or people can make a donation online.

There are so many areas of the world where Christian Aid's help is desperately needed. The money which is collected this week can make a real difference. There will be envelopes available in the church for people who wish to make their own donation.

On Saturday 10 May our Lunchtime @ Christ Church will be held in support of Christian Aid. Please note that the time has been amended to 12:00pm-2:00pm. If you are able to help at this event, or to attend, please sign up on the sheet which will be at the back of the church, or let one of the Elders know.

You can find out more about Christian Aid Week and, if you would prefer to, make a donation online at

Christian Aid 80th anniversary

Christian Aid will be holding a special Service of Thanksgiving and Reflection to mark their 80th anniversary, which will take place on Thursday 12 June at 12:00pm at Westminster Abbey.

The Revd Jerry Pillay, General Secretary of the World Council of Churches (WCC), will deliver the address, and the service will also include the Kingdom Choir, who will join the Sacred Choir from Twyford CofE School and Emmanuel Smith to sing a newly commissioned version of 'When I Needed a Neighbour'.

The service will offer an opportunity to reflect on the incredible journey that Christian Aid has taken together working closely with their global partners, to thank supporters for their ongoing action and support, and together to renew a commitment to ending poverty and injustice.

This service is open to all, and Christian Aid would love to be joined by people who have supported them over the past 80 years.

For more information and to register to attend please visit christianaid.org.uk/events/80th-anniversary-service-gininvite - registrations will close by Monday 27 May, however may close earlier if capacity is reached.

THE UNSTOPPABLE POWER OF HOPE

A bit more from Spring Harvest

You will have read in Ruth's Pastoral Letter that a group from the pastorate recently attended Spring Harvest, where there is a packed programme that includes something for everyone.

This was certainly true on the evening of day 2, where the after hours entertainment was provided by Kingdom Wrestling - yes, professional wrestling at Spring Harvest!

Kingdom Wrestling is a charity that partners with churches to put on wrestling events whilst also providing an opportunity to share the Christian faith with people who might not otherwise engage with it.

At Spring Harvest, three entertaining matches were complimented with the founder (and also one of the wrestlers!) Gareth Thompson sharing a powerful message of how he overcame an extremely challenging upbringing to find Jesus, train to be a wrestler and then combine the two to share the Gospel with others.

It was also a great reminder of how God can use all sorts of people and situations in incredible ways - we certainly don't have to be in a 'traditional' church environment for God to be at work.

Be With Us Lord Jesus

A hymn of intercession

1. Be with us Lord Jesus
in all that we do, guide and help us always so we may serve you.
Let us not forget you
in our busy lives,
but find time to thank you for your loving care.

2. Be with us Lord Jesus
show us how to live,
so that we may follow
all that you have taught.
May we then help others
in their daily lives, so that they may know you
as a loving friend.

Jesus Opens the Eyes of a Man Born Blind

John 9:1-12

In 14th century Italy Siena was an independent city state ruled by a committee of nine and was the principal rival to Florence in Tuscany.

Until 22 June the National Gallery in London has a fine exhibition of Sienese religious art between 1300 and 1350. It includes a number of altarpieces dedicated to the Virgin Mary who was particularly venerated in Siena. The exhibition concentrates on works by Duccio di Buoninsegna, Simone Martini, and the brothers Pietro and Ambrogio Lorenzetti.

For me the highlight is a series of scenes from the life of Jesus by Duccio (1255/1260-1319) and his assistants which were painted in egg tempera on poplar. These were part of a large altarpiece known as the Maestà which was created for Siena Cathedral between 1308 and 1311. On the front the Virgin Mary is seated with Jesus as a child. They are surrounded by angels and saints and small pictures of stories about Mary's life and the childhood of Jesus. On the back are over 30 pictures illustrating various events in the ministry of Jesus leading up to his crucifixion.

The wooden altarpiece was taken down in 1506 and sawn into pieces in 1771. Parts were sold and can be seen in various museums around the world. However most of the altarpiece is still in Siena, in the Cathedral Museum.

The eight scenes from the Maestà altarpiece in the exhibition are The Temptation of Christ in the Temple, The Temptation of Christ on the Mountain, The Calling of the Apostles Peter and Andrew, The Wedding at Cana, Christ and the Woman of Samaria, The Healing of a Man Born Blind, The Transfiguration and The Raising of Lazarus.

Jesus Opens the Eyes of a Man Born Blind, which belongs to the National Gallery, combines two events recorded in John's Gospel. Duccio sets the scene in a typical Tuscan town. In the centre Jesus, with a gold halo, is rubbing the blind man's eyes with mud mixed with spittle before telling him to go and wash his face in the pool of Siloam. The same man can be seen again on the right at the pool of Siloam which was in Jerusalem. He looks up at Jesus (who is portrayed in the next picture of the Transfiguration) giving thanks that his sight has been restored (John 9:6-7).

You may see a full colour version of Duccio's painting Jesus Opens the Eyes of a Man Born Blind on page 23.

Boys' Brigade update

The last few weeks at BB have been a little quieter than normal due to the Easter holidays. Before we finished the term all of our age groups explored Easter through a range of activities, helping us to think about Jesus' ultimate act of love on the cross.

On Monday 19 May from 6:30pm-7:30pm we will be holding our Annual Awards Evening in the hall, where we will present a range of badges, certificates and trophies to celebrate the achievements of our boys over the last year. Friends from Christ Church are very welcome to join us!
